

“David Krakauer Returns”

David Krakauer, clarinet

Nurit Pacht, violin

Aron Zelkowicz, cello

Pittsburgh Jewish Music Festival Orchestra

Lucas Richman, conductor

Tuesday, June 2 • 7:30pm

Katz Theatre

JCC of Greater Pittsburgh • 5738 Darlington Rd.

Internationally acclaimed clarinetist David Krakauer redefines the notion of a concert artist. Known for his mastery of myriad styles including classical, klezmer, and avant-garde improvisation, Krakauer lies way beyond “cross-over”. His best-selling recordings further define his brilliant tone, virtuosity and imagination. Don’t miss his authentic take on a “Klezmer Concerto” by Ofer Ben-Amots as well as traditional klezmer arrangements with string orchestra. This concert also includes rhapsodic works from Ernest Bloch’s “Jewish Cycle”, in honor of the 50th anniversary of the American composer’s death.

“Hands-down one of the most exciting clarinetists performing today”

“Hebrew Melodies from the New World”

With members of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, pianist Natasha Snitkovsky, and special guest artists

Sunday, June 7 • 7:30pm

Temple Emanuel of the South Hills
1250 Bower Hill Rd.

Monday, June 8 • 7:30pm

Levy Hall
Rodef Shalom Congregation • 4905 Fifth Ave.

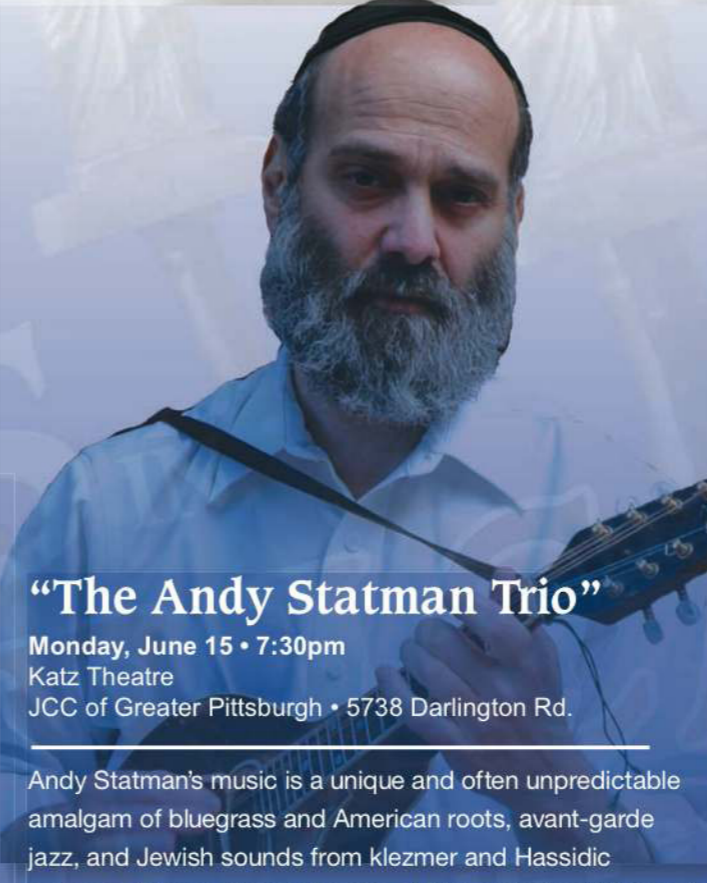

Over the past century American composers have taken up the mantle of Eastern European concert music inspired by klezmer, Hebraic, and spiritual sources. The Pittsburgh Jewish Music Festival’s adventuresome chamber music concerts have continued this tradition with members of the Pittsburgh Symphony and guest artists. These programs — repeated in two different venues — will include Meira Warshauer’s lovely vocal setting of “Eili Eili” by Hannah Senesh, David Schiff’s instrumental Divertimento from the opera “Gimpel the Fool”, and much more.

“...it was a joy to see a stage abound with optimism”

–Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

The Pittsburgh Jewish Music Festival is co-sponsored by the United Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh, Temple Emanuel of South Hills and Rodef Shalom Congregation. The Pittsburgh Jewish Music Festival is made possible in part by Pennsylvania Partners in the Arts, The Pennsylvania Council on the Arts and the Heinz Endowments Small Arts Initiative.

“The Andy Statman Trio”

Monday, June 15 • 7:30pm

Katz Theatre
JCC of Greater Pittsburgh • 5738 Darlington Rd.

Andy Statman’s music is a unique and often unpredictable amalgam of bluegrass and American roots, avant-garde jazz, and Jewish sounds from klezmer and Hassidic sources. A mere glance at some of his musical collaborators over the years — including Itzhak Perlman, David Grisman, Jerry Garcia, Bela Fleck and Ricky Skaggs — confirms his eclecticism, versatility, and legendary status in contemporary American music. Equally virtuosic on mandolin and clarinet, the Grammy-nominee is an intense and spiritual performer known for barn-burning solos, sprawling improvisations, and prayerful meditations. The Andy Statman Trio includes Larry Eagle (drums) and Jim Whitney (bass).

“Best Jazz performance (with Calliope) of 2004”

–Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

“Andy Statman is the real thing — a musician’s musician.”

–The New Yorker
